Judged: With or Without the Law

Romans 2:1-16

October 8, 2015

I. All have sinned and all are under God's wrath.

A. Including:

1. The pagan Gentile.
2. The religious Jew.
3. The moralist.

B. The sin of the moralist is hypocrisy.

cf. Romans 7; I Corinthians 2:15; Matthew 7:1-6

II. Our hypocrisy is inexcusable and God's judgment is inescapable.

A. We deceive ourselves.

cf. Matthew 5:21-30

B. We presume upon God.

C. We store up wrath for ourselves.

D. The Day of Judgment is coming.

III. God's judgment is righteous.

A. Judged by deeds.

B. Works are not the basis of salvation, but they are evidence of a saving faith.

cf. Psalm 62:12; Romans 3:28; 4:5; 5:1; 8:33; Philippians 2:12-13

IV. God's judgment is impartial.

A. All men are sinners.

cf. Romans 3:23

B. We will all be judged, with or without the law.

cf. John 8:39-47

C. The rule of judgment is knowledge.

cf. Acts 4:12

D. The Gospel is our only hope.
